2. GTC - AGREEMENT - ORDERS

2.1 These GTC apply to the provision of Goods and/or Services by the Supplier to the Customer.

The Goods and/or Services that are subject of the Agreement are described in the ST or in the Order.

2.2 If and to the extent that no other terms have been agreed upon and stipulated between the Parties, the Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase Goods and/or Services from the Supplier on the basis of the GTC.

2.3 The GTC apply to any Order of Goods and/or Services and form an integral part of the Agreement. Supplier’s general terms of business (whether it be general conditions or any other terms that the Supplier seeks to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing) are hereby expressly rejected and shall only apply if and insofar as TCR has explicitly accepted them in writing. Any references of TCR to correspondence from the Supplier containing or referring to the Supplier’s general terms of business shall not constitute TCR's acceptance of the applicability to this Agreement of such general terms of business.

2.4 In the event of any conflict or ambiguity between the GTC, the ST and the Order, the Order shall prevail over the ST, and the ST (including the appendices thereto) shall prevail over the GTC.

2.5 The GTC do not represent a commitment by the Customer to place an Order at the Supplier but rather establishes the terms and conditions that shall apply in the event such Orders are issued. All Orders shall be deemed to incorporate all the provisions of the Agreement.

2.6 All purchases under the Agreement are on a non-exclusive basis: the Customer shall remain free to purchase assets and/or services similar to the Goods and/or Services from other suppliers at all times during the Term of the Agreement.

2.7 The Order shall be deemed accepted by the Supplier on the earlier of:

(a) the Supplier issuing a written acceptance of the Order, as the case may be within the Order Confirmation Period (if such Order Confirmation Period is specified in the ST); or

(b) the Supplier doing any act consistent with fulfilling the Order, at which point the Agreement shall come into force; or

(c) at the last day of the Order Confirmation Period (if such Order Confirmation Period is specified in the ST) if the Supplier does not reject the Order within the Order Confirmation Period (if such Order Confirmation Period is specified in the ST).

2.8 The Customer is entitled to reschedule or cancel all or part of an Order without any compensation for Supplier if communicated in writing to Supplier within the Order Cancellation Period (if such Order Cancellation Period is specified in the ST). Such Order Cancellation Period (if such Order Cancellation Period is specified in the ST) is calculated as from the first day following the issue date of the Order. Any sums paid to Supplier as advance payment in respect of any such rescheduled or cancelled Order shall be forthwith returned to the Customer.

2.9 The Supplier waives any right it might otherwise have to rely on any term endorsed upon, delivered with or contained in any documents of the Supplier that is inconsistent with the GTC.

2.10 Should additional Goods, Services or spare parts be purchased by the Customer from the Supplier, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall apply to all of such Goods, Services or spare parts unless expressly otherwise agreed upon between the Parties.

2.11 All documents and correspondence relating to an Order must state the Order reference number. Failing this, it will not be dealt with and Customer declines all responsibility for any consequences, which may result there from.

3. THE GOODS/THE SERVICES - WARRANTIES

(g) Supplier's premises are adequate and suitably equipped to provide the Goods and/or Services.

3.3 The Customer may inspect and test the Goods and/or Services at any time before delivery. Supplier shall provide all reasonable assistance thereto, including access to drawings and production data at no charge for the Customer. The Supplier shall remain fully responsible for the Goods and Services despite any such inspection or testing. Any such inspection or testing shall not release Supplier from its obligations under the Agreement nor shall it affect any right of Customer under the Agreement.

If following such inspection or testing the Customer considers that the Goods or Services do not conform or are unlikely to comply with the Supplier's undertakings at clauses 3.1 and 3.2, the Customer shall inform the Supplier in writing and the Supplier shall immediately take such remedial action as is necessary to ensure compliance.

3.4 The Customer may conduct further inspections and tests after the Supplier has carried out its remedial actions referred to in clause 3.5 of the GTC.

3.5 If the Supplier fails to take remedial actions within 10 (ten) days of Customer's notice to Supplier to take remedial actions as referred to under clause 3.3 of the GTC, the Customer shall be entitled to cancel forthwith the Order at no further cost or liabilities for doing so. Any sums that may have been paid to Supplier as advance payment in respect of the cancelled Order shall be returned forthwith to the Customer, without prejudice to Customer's other rights arising under the Agreement.

3.6 The Supplier acknowledges that, should the Customer elect to sell any of the Goods and/or Services purchased from the Supplier onwards to any third party, all representations and warranties still in existence in relation to such Goods and/or Services at the time of such sale shall automatically transfer to the benefit of the new owner of the Goods and/or Services.

3.7 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, Supplier shall make available for sale to Customer all spare parts (including consumables) needed for the maintenance of the Goods for a minimum period of fifteen (15) years from the date of the delivery of said Goods.

3.8 If the Supplier decides to discontinue the manufacture of any Goods, Supplier shall give Customer at least twelve (12) months prior written notice. Supplier shall accept Orders from Customer during this 12-month period for delivery up to six (6) months after the expiry of such 12-month period.

3.9 Supplier shall promptly notify Customer in writing of any changes affecting the form, fit, function or main components of the Goods by at least six (6) months prior written notice. Supplier shall also promptly inform Customer in writing about any substitutes for the Goods and developments of the Goods.

5. TIME OF ESSENCE - DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

5.1 Time is of the essence. All dates referred to in the Agreement shall be firm. The Supplier shall inform the Customer in writing, as quickly as possible, of any incident likely to give rise to delay in the Delivery Date. This information shall not release Supplier from its responsibility and the Customer has the right in such case to request from Supplier copies of sub-orders, without figures, relating to its Orders in order to check progress therewith.

5.2 The Supplier shall ensure and warrants that:

(a) the Goods are properly packed and secured in such manner as to enable them to reach the Place of Destination in good condition;

(b) each delivery of the Goods is accompanied by a delivery note; and

(c) if the Supplier requires the Customer to return any packaging material to the Supplier, that fact is clearly stated on the delivery note. Any such packaging material shall be returned to the Supplier at the cost of the Supplier.

(d) the Goods and/or Services will be supplied on the Delivery Date with all required delivery documentation as may be further specified in the ST.

5.3 If Parties have agreed on a Monthly Schedule in the ST, then Supplier shall provide to the Customer a monthly written report on the status of the Orders that are subject of the Agreement and the expected dates for delivery of the Goods and/or Services. This report shall be provided and updated during the first five Business Days of each calendar month.

5.4 The Services shall be delivered at the Place of Destination and during Business Hours.

5.5 If the place of delivery of the Goods (in accordance with the agreed delivery term) is the same as the Place of Destination, the Supplier shall deliver the Goods during Business Hours. technical inspection of the Goods and/or Services in presence of a representative of Supplier at the Place of Destination. If Supplier is not represented at the time of inspection, Customer's inspection, opinion and remarks shall be deemed to be conclusive. The inspections can be performed by an Affiliate of the Customer or its representative.

5.9 Following the inspection provided under clause 5.8, an acceptance certificate will be drawn up by the Customer in duplicate and signed by Supplier (if present at inspection) and Customer (or its representative) whereby each Party will obtain its copy. In case of absence of the Supplier at inspection, the Customer will send the acceptance certificate to the Supplier.

5.10 Any items that do not meet the conditions of the Agreement, including the Specifications, will be listed in the acceptance certificate. Except where otherwise stated in the acceptance certificate all items mentioned shall be remedied by Supplier within 14 days from the date of the acceptance certificate.

5.11 Acceptance will only occur if the acceptance certificate does not contain any items or if all items mentioned have been entirely remedied within the period referred to in clause 5.10 and . Otherwise, the Goods and/or Services will be rejected, without Acceptance.

5.12 Without prejudice to Customer's rights arising from the Supplier's failure to supply the Goods and/or Services in conformity with its obligations under the Agreement or to meet the warranties under the Agreement, Acceptance will only be given and completed when the Goods and/or Services are found to be in conformity with the requirements set out in the Agreement and an acceptance certificate (in duplicate) signed by Supplier and Customer or its representative.

5.13 Acceptance of the Goods and/or Services does not release the Supplier from its liabilities and obligations or warranties provided under the Agreement and does not operate as a waiver by the Customer of any right, claim or remedy under this Agreement.

6. REMEDIES

6.1 If the Goods or Services (or instalments thereof if so agreed):

(a) are not delivered on the Delivery Date (or within a Grace Period to be added to the Delivery Date if such Grace Period is agreed in the ST), or
